Meyrick Cox, Chairman of the C1 Racing Club, said:

"We are thrilled to be running two full 24-hour races in 2018. We will be starting more cars in UK 24-hour races than ever before, which is a huge logistical challenge, but should make for some very exciting racing. We are expecting to make further announcements about the two weekends in the coming weeks to build these weekends into very special events.

The message is clear: there is strong demand for simple, low-cost and fair endurance racing. The C1 Racing is proving itself to be the perfect entry-level endurance racing car"
